

SPRED TRAINEE

Part Time 20 hours per week

SPRED Galloway is a registered charity which works in the Diocese of Galloway to support parishes to welcome and include their members who have a learning disability to play their full part in the life of the parish and of the wider church.

We are seeking to recruit a new member of the team who will be trained to support the Director(s) of SPRED Galloway in delivering the SPRED Programme in Ayr, Girvan, Irvine, Kilmarnock and Stevenston as well as aid the expansion SPRED to other parts of the Diocese.

The successful candidate would have the following skills:

- Have a good knowledge of the ethos of the Catholic Church
- Be a powerful advocate for the rights of people with learning disabilities
- Be able to work effectively with clergy and groups of volunteers
- Be able to work flexible hours (with some evening and weekend working)
- Have a full driving license
- Be committed to undertake bespoke training programme

For more details, and or an informal chat over coffee about the role, please contact Sister Kathleen or Helena, via email, info@spredgalloway.org.uk, or telephone 01292 738068
